

I'm a Lonesome Fugitive

Eb for Standard Key

Liz Anderson and Casey Anderson

Medium ($\text{♩} = 120$)

Verse

Sheet music for the first verse. The key signature is Eb (one sharp). The melody starts on E, moves to A, then B⁷, and back to E. The lyrics describe Cain's past life: "I raised a lot of Cain back in my younger days while of lone-ly but I can't af-ford the lux-u-ry". The melody continues with chords A, B⁷, E, and E.

Continuation of the verse. The melody moves through chords A, B⁷, E, and E. The lyrics continue: "ma-ma used to pray my crops would fail now having one I love to come a-long Now She'd". The melody ends on E.

Continuation of the verse. The melody moves through chords E, A, A, and A. The lyrics continue: "I'm a hunted fug-i-tive with just two ways on-ly slow me down and they'd catch up with me Out-For". The melody ends on A.

Continuation of the verse. The melody moves through chords A, B⁷, E, and E. The lyrics continue: "run the law or spend my life in jail. he who trav-els fast-est goes a-lone. I'd". The melody ends on E.

Chorus

Sheet music for the chorus. The key signature changes to Eb. The melody starts on E, moves to A, then B⁷, and back to E. The lyrics are: "like to settle down but they won't let me A".

Continuation of the chorus. The melody moves through chords A, A, B⁷, and B⁷. The lyrics continue: "fug-i-tive must be a rolling stone Down".

Continuation of the chorus. The melody moves through chords E, A, B⁷, and B⁷. The lyrics continue: "ev-'ry road there's al-ways one more cit-y I'm".

Final continuation of the chorus. The melody moves through chords A, B⁷, E, and E. The lyrics end with "(I'm)".