

Moonlight Saving Time

Bb for Standard Key

Irving Kahal and Harry Richman

Swing [Blossom Dearie 1955] ($\text{♩} = 184$)

A1,A2

There ought to be a moon-light sav-ing time, so I could love that ought to be a law in clo-ver time, to keep that moon out man of mine, un - til the bird - ies wake and chime, "Good o - ver time, to keep each lov - er's lane in rhyme till morn - ing." There dawn - ing. You'd bet - ter hur - ry up, hur - ry up, hur - ry up, get bus - y to - day.

You'd bet - ter croon a tune, croon a tune to the man up in the moon and here's what I'd say: There ought to be a moon - light sav-ing time, so I could love that man of mine, un - til the bird - ies wake and chime, "Good morn - - - - - ing."
